Support Your Square

Your square is maintained by Abingdon Square Conservancy, your neighborhood park conservancy, in cooperation with the NYC Parks and Recreation Department. The Conservancy is solely dependent on private donations for its operation and receives no public funding. To continue maintaining and improving the Square, the Conservancy needs corporate and individual members.

Your contribution helps to preserve and maintain:

- 🌿 Beautiful trees, perennials, grasses and other plantings
- 🌿 Benches, bluestone paths, garden posts and chains and trash receptacles
- 🌿 Historic wrought iron perimeter fence
- 🌿 Centerpiece “Doughboy” monument
- 🌿 Underground irrigation system

Preserve Your Property Value

Residences located near a green space have greater light and views, and therefore rent or sell at a premium. Maintaining your beautiful, vibrant park helps to protect your property value.

Your Support At Work

The generosity of our contributors has allowed the Conservancy to make the following enhancements:

- 🌿 Employ a gardener and a seasonal assistant
- 🌿 Improve and maintain the Arthur W. Strickler Triangle
- 🌿 Plant traffic medians with durable, pet-proof hearty grasses

Conservancy Events

- 🌿 Annual Spring tulip display
- 🌿 Annual carved pumpkin patch on Halloween night
- 🌿 Annual winter holiday light display
